Meet Me in the Garden

Local Plants

Little Bluestem

A North American grass that attracts wildlife and emits a pleasant, spicy aroma when crushed.

Beech Trees

Eastern North American tree with a sweet scent that provides food for wildlife with their fruits.

Grey Owl

Eastern North American tree that attracts birds and small mammals with its shelter and food. When crushed, the foliage emits a fragrant aroma that is often described as cedar-like.

Ninebark

A deciduous shrub native to North America valued for its attractive foliage and exfoliating bark. It attracts pollinators regardless of its lack of scent.

Exotic Plants

Little Lime Hydrangea

Native to eastern Asia that attracts pollinators with its flowers, but is not a significant wildlife habitat plant and lacks a notable scent.

Lilac

Europe and Asia native plant commonly grown for its beautiful flowers that emit a sweet scent.

Beautyberry

Chinese and Japanese native plant valued for its purple berries that persist well into winter. Although it is aromaless, birds and other wildlife enjoy its berries.

Dwarf Burning Bush

Asia native plant well-known for its bright red fall foliage. Birds and other wildlife like its fruit although the bush is scentless.

REVIEWS

"B & M in Oakwood and North Randall still have the best chicken, ribs and spicy polish girls in Greater CLE. The ribs and cakes are very good too. And yes, they have fried fish. Check 'em out. The Oakwood spot is not hard to find next to Ollie's and Sam's club."

"Came in for a quick dinner meal and had good, friendly service with Rell. He made sure everyone's food was made fresh & correct before we left"

"I have ordered takeout ribs chicken wings and absolutely LOVED it! Very flavorful! You have the options of sauce or dry rub and it is seriously the best ribs I've ever had! Anywhere! Fall off the bone!"
